spring/summa 22.

a collection of things I want to eat.

I was inspired by an excerpt I recently read from a fellow chef speaking about writing a menu.

Pastry chef, Stella Parks, stated perfectly that we don't need to be defined in only one way. "There are no rules. We can do whatever we want and change whenever we want. It's time to remember that & get back to cooking things YOU want to eat." What great, simple advice...that pertains to so much.

Life is too short, (we've been reminded of that lesson vividly in the past few years).
SO... here is a menu full of things I personally want to eat. (well...minus the salmon...I hate salmon.)

I think you're going to be happy with my selection of comfort + new + your favorite throwbacks+ healthy.

I hope this menu finds you making new food memories, face to face & more than ever with your favorite people.

clean livin'.

you make the choices, and leave the fun part to us!

all options in this section are naturally gluten, soy & dairy free this menu addition came to life many years ago as we personally jumped on the clean eating train and soon realized there were many people looking to do the same. it has evolved over time to encompass selections which align with the latest movements in healthy lifestyle choices; seeing food as medicine and realizing even more through a pandemic, that at the end of the day, if we don't have our health, we truly don't have much.

this menu is here as a supplement to the house menu & brought to life with lots of research & passion. it's designed to give you choices that will promote good health. we want you to have somewhere to go that makes you feel whole, balanced and connected to a way of eating which works best for you...because that's what life is all about, right? balance. well, maybe balance with a touch of buff dip. ha, ha!
